

Dr Khandaker Rashedul Haque, Additional Secretary, Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh and Director General, Department of Environment, expressed that the Kyoto Protocol is an important opportunity for developing countries. He indicated that taking part in the CD4CDM project is aligned with the Government's aims to achieve sustainable development goal of reforestation and afforestation.